

Friends of Wingecarribee Libraries

Meredith Jaffe

The fence

Meredith Jaffe has been a book critic for the Guardian Australia and Literary Editor for the Hoopla online magazine. She regularly interviews fellow authors for literary events and writers' festivals.

In her first book The fence, Meredith Jaffe's wicked sense of humour blooms. In this green-thumbed social satire of suburban neighbourly conflict there is nothing polite about this white picket drama. This book is a mischievous treat for anyone who has ever had tricky neighbours.

Join us and Meredith Jaffe for our first Author Event for 2017

10am, Tuesday 17th January in the

Henrietta Rose Room Bowral

Morning tea will follow the talk

$10 FOWL members $15 non-members Bookings essential

Payment either

- At Wingecarribee libraries, by correct cash or cheque
- Direct debit: Friends of Wingecarribee Libraries

BSB: 641-800 Acc: 200256114 Include your full name as reference

- Mail cheque: Treasurer FOWL PO Box 375 Bowral 2576

Friends of Wingecarribee Libraries

Meredith Jaffe

The fence

Meredith Jaffe has been a book critic for the Guardian Australia and Literary Editor for the Hoopla online magazine. She regularly interviews fellow authors for literary events and writers' festivals.

In her first book The fence, Meredith Jaffe's wicked sense of humour blooms. In this green-thumbed social satire of suburban neighbourly conflict there is nothing polite about this white picket drama. This book is a mischievous treat for anyone who has ever had tricky neighbours.

Join us and Meredith Jaffe for our first Author Event for 2017

10am, Tuesday 17th January in the

Henrietta Rose Room Bowral

Morning tea will follow the talk

$10 FOWL members $15 non-members Bookings essential

Payment either

- At Wingecarribee libraries, by correct cash or cheque
- Direct debit: Friends of Wingecarribee Libraries

BSB: 641-800 Acc: 200256114 Include your full name as reference

- Mail cheque: Treasurer FOWL PO Box 375 Bowral 2576